

Culture as a domain of its own
374,703 elites crossing two of five domains

Splitting cultural production away from clerical and credentialled authority puts the church and the academy next to writers and performers (+0.47) and both away from politics: political-cultural is -0.57 and political-ideational -0.18. Culture is the domain furthest from the military (-0.89), which in this reading is fused with politics more tightly than anywhere else in the analysis (+1.07).
